Christmas 2006, Volume 5, Number 4

Anschauungen
by Mark Braun ........................................ p. 3
The Framework of Fellowship
Antithesis as Election Issue
CHARIS and the CLC
A Letter from Waldo Werning
New Guy on the Block

Applied Christian Ethics in Regenerative Medicine
by Robert O. Balza, Jr. and Paul R. Boehlke ................................. p. 8

Economic History According to Holy Scripture
by Brian Jacobsen .............................. p. 17

The Need for Adequate Health Care in Sub-Saharan Africa
by Rebecca Nierengarten ................. p. 20

The Lutheran Intellectual Tradition:
Paradox, Ambiguity, and Janusian Thinking Or
How the Christian Faith Informs the Life of the Mind, and Vice Versa
by John E. Bauer .................... p. 25

A Brief History of Wisconsin
Lutheran College
by Mark Braun ..................................... p. 32

From the Chapel
by Paul R. Boehlke .............................. p. 38

Index for Volumes 1-5 (2001-2006)
......................................................... p. 41